Possible Sale of Sacramento Northern Right of Way, Tracks Hinted by W.P.

By JULIUS ROSENTHAL

For the first time since the problem was tossed into the limelight almost a year and nine months ago, Western Pacific Railroad hinted this week that there is a possibility that its Sacramento Northern tracks in this area may not be torn up and sold for scrap.

Sam Fordyce, executive assistant to the president of Western Pacific, said WP would be willing to sell the right of way and tracks if a suitable offer were made.

He stressed, however, that present plans still call for eventual abandonment and scrapping of some 15 miles of Sacramento Northern tracks, from 40th Street and Shafter Avenue, Oakland, to West Lafayette, Orinda.

"It's just a question of the amount for which we could liquidate the right of way and the tracks," Fordyce stated.

"ADMITTING that the tracks might conceivably be used for some form of rapid transit and that the right of way merited consideration in connection with the proposed Shepherd Canyon Freeway, the Western Pacific official said:

"The state would be given first choice. As a matter of fact, the state is now making a study to determine the feasibility of using the present Sacramento Northern tunnel—whether this tunnel could be used for the Shepherd Canyon Freeway or whether another tunnel will have to be built."

AT THE SAME TIME, Assistant Contra Costa County Road Commissioner George Berry said the county highway department is interested in the possibility of this county's use of the Sacramento Northern roadbed as a county road from Moraga into Lafayette.

"I would hesitate to say how good the roadbed would be for that purpose, because we haven't made a study of it," he said.

"It would probably be as good or better than St. Mary's Road—it wouldn't be as crooked. It would have to be widened and paved."

"I don't know how we would handle it, but there has been talk that we might want to get it. A lot of people in Lafayette have suggested that we look into the matter, so we are interested."

THE STATEMENTS by Fordyce and Berry were made as the Oakland City Council prepared to hold a public hearing at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday on the controversial Union Street franchise sought by Oakland Terminal Railway.

Oakland Terminal Railway is jointly owned by Western Pacific and Santa Fe Railroads. Upon the outcome of its request for a franchise for four-tenths of a mile of track on Union Street, from 12th Street south to Fifth Street, hinges any future development of plans for the old Sacramento Northern tracks.

The franchise application was made in January, 1952. The Oakland City Council on September 3 of this year voted its intention to grant the franchise and scheduled the hearing for next Tuesday night.

"THIS HEARING will be held to hear protests," Fordyce explained. "If protests are overruled, an ordinance will be introduced, probably at a later council meeting."

"This ordinance must have three readings, and 30 days must elapse between the second and third readings."

"Then, after the ordinance is adopted, 60 days must elapse before it can become effective. So it'll probably be December or January before there actually is a franchise."

IF THE FRANCHISE is granted, present plans call for simultaneous applications to the Interstate Commerce Commission by Oakland Terminal Railway and by Western Pacific—by OTR for authority to construct the tracks on Union Street and by WP for permission to

Taxpayer Group May Make Study On Incorporation

Suggestion that the Contra Costa Taxpayers Association be asked to assist in an incorporation study for Orinda was made Monday night by Frank Cayting, chairman of the Orinda Association's incorporation study committee.

Cayting told the Orinda Association board, meeting at Orinda School, that the Taxpayers Association is empowered by its by-laws to do research for communities on incorporation costs and revenues.

"We could probably get them to make a study for us," he said. He added that he would confer with Harry Morrison, executive secretary of the Taxpayers Association, about this.

Cayting is a member of the Taxpayers Association.

His suggestion met with general approval from the Orinda Association directors.

ACTION OF THE Happy Valley Improvement Association in Lafayette to take steps for incorporation of Happy Valley was mentioned by Cayting and others as an example of the tremendous interest in incorporation in this general area.

Cayting pointed out that Ramsay Underwood, who is on his committee, lives in Happy Valley and is treasurer of the Happy Valley Improvement Association.

Developments in Happy Valley should be closely watched by us," he said.

ENLARGEMENT of the committee was announced by Cayting. In addition to Cayting and Underwood, the group now includes Harold Jones of Moraga Del Rey, Bill Cole of the Country Club area and Tevis Thompson of Moraga Meadows.

Two or three more will be added to the committee in the near future, the chairman said.

He pointed out that he wants the committee to include representatives from both sides of the Crossroads.

Underwood represents the business district on the committee.

GOP Council Meets To Discuss Voting

The Orinda section of the Contra Costa Republican Council met September 22 at the home of Mrs. Thomas Barrows, 59 Southwood Drive, to discuss the most effective method of helping all new residents in Orinda to register for voting.

Mrs. Barrows gave a report of the executive committee and stressed the role of Orinda in over-all county planning.

Joe Creighton, state vice-president of the Young Republicans, outlined briefly the State Policy Conference results held recently in Monterey.

New members appointed to the Orinda section of the Council were Paul Ammen, Mary Kinser, Ken Morrish and Bert Kohler. Mrs. Carol Harrison is coordinator of United Finance from the Republican Women's group in this area.

Members attending the meeting were Yenda Krotz, Thelma Sweet, Kay Saville, Carol Harrison, Barbara Wolfert, Louise Galbraith, Alice Haley, Rene Kennedy, Jean St. Hill, William Anderson, Joe Creighton, Duane Nuenschwander, Dorothy Bentley, Jeanette Fayrum and Betty Irwin.

About Orinda—And a Korean Orphanage

By CARRIE L. BROWN

How wonderful! An orphanage in Korea named "The Orinda" because built and supported by all the groups in Orinda, sectarian and non-sectarian!

So thought the 20 members and guests of the 12-15 Club when they met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. George Hickok for dessert at 7 o'clock, a brief business meeting, and a talk on Korean orphans by the guest speaker, Rev. Robert Chung of Pusan, Korea.

REV. CHUNG was introduced by Mrs. Donald Wilson whose son Bob, an American G.I. in Korea, has won much commendable publicity for his single handed efforts to get help for the pitiful orphans he saw about the army camps—efforts which, beginning with prayer and continuing with letters home—aroused in his parents a passionate determination to do something and help.

Chung when he came to America. They volunteered to appear with him on a speaking tour in California on behalf of the Korean orphans.

The sympathetic hearts of this philanthropic and non-sectarian group of the 12-15 Club were deeply touched by Rev. Chung's description of orphan babies and children dying on the streets of Pusan of hunger and even more pitiful, of their staggering up to camps and huts with feeble arms outstretched begging for food. Their number, he said, was not just here and there one, but scattered over South Korea a hundred thousand!

To Give or Not to Give?

AN EDITORIAL

Fund-raising activities will be begun Tuesday by the local board of the East Bay United Crusade.

There is confusion and misunderstanding about this fund drive; private citizens want to know just what the name "United Crusade" means. They want to know just what charity and service organizations are included in this drive.

Here are the facts:

1. Of the eight or more different organizations which carried out fund drives here last year, only one is included in the "United Crusade." This one is the Boy Scout Council.

2. Seven or more charity and service organizations which have been active here in the past will NOT benefit from the "United Crusade." These are the Girl Scout Council, the American Red Cross, the Contra Costa Cancer Association, the Contra Costa Heart Association, the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center, the Contra Costa Crippled Children's Association and the Salvation Army.

3. These seven organizations will be, or already are, conducting separate fund drives.
4. Organizations included in the "United Crusade" are as follows: the Boy Scout Council, Camp Fire Girls, the Y.M.C.A., the United Defense Fund (U.D.F.), Shadelands School for Cerebral Palsied Children, White Cane, a charity for the blind, and the Contra Costa Branch of the Herrick Memorial Hospital Clinic.

5. Five of these organizations did not conduct organized fund drives here in the past. One did—the Y.M.C.A.

There is no doubt that all charity and service groups listed above are deserving of support.

For this reason, it is important that we clearly understand that the "United Crusade" does not benefit any more than seven of the 14 separate organizations.

The most logical solution seems to be to balance donations between the "United Crusade" and the other organizations which will be conducting their own fund-raising campaigns.

Girl Scout Fund Drive Continues As Ladies Work

Continuing the door to door campaign for the Girl Scout Fund Drive, more than 20 volunteers were busy rounding up the dollars this week in Orinda, according to Mrs. John Gompertz, campaign colonel for Orinda.

All the workers on the Girl Scout Fund Drive are busy finishing their calls and turning the money collected into their captains this week. Among those calling on their neighbors on the Moraga side of the Crossroads are the following:

'Constant Fire Prevention' Is Chief's Idea

Orinda will not observe Fire Prevention Week, from Sunday through Saturday, October 10, with any special activities, according to Fire Chief H. E. Wyatt.

"We observe a 'fire prevention week' all year 'round," he said. "We have not planned any special activities for this special week."

He explained that throughout the year the fire department carries out wiring inspection of homes and checks on all burning, which cannot be done without a permit.

Association Asks County To Revise Zoning Ordinance

On recommendation of the Civic Affairs Committee, the Orinda Association Board of Directors Monday night unanimously asked the County Board of Supervisors to revise the Zoning Ordinance so as to require land use permits for horticultural activities in Residential-Agricultural zone.

Motion that the county be asked to effect this change was made by Vice-President Everett Howe and was seconded by Charles Blue.

The action was taken after Joseph Creighton, temporary chairman of Civic Affairs, reported on the recent controversy over E. E. Nicolai's request for permission to build two orchid greenhouses on a 5-acre parcel in Orinda Hills.

Deputy District Attorney Matthew Walker ruled that no land use permit is required, provided the greenhouses are not used as places of sale.

Creighton, declaring the ordinance is subject to varying interpretations, told the association board that the land where the greenhouses are to be built was being bulldozed.

OTHER BOARD business included:

1. A report by President Peter Veitch that the county has agreed to repair and accept into the county road system a 400-foot section of Southwood Drive, north of Tara Road. If the five property owners involved put up $400 for repairs.

2. Referral to the Community Center Committee of a request from Mrs. Helen Drews for permission to Orinda Community Church to construct a path across Community Center property.

3. APPROVAL in principle of the proposal that the county establish a rehabilitation camp for boys.

4. Announcement by Kirk Miles that, due to press of other activities, he was unable to continue as the community's representative on the Contra Costa Park and Recreation Council. Miles said he would ask Stanley Allen, alternate delegate, or Bob Harrison or Bob Anthonisen to "take over."

Harrison and Anthonisen are on the association's Community Center Committee, of which Miles is chairman.

Action Asked on Sewage Overflow Into Reservoir

The problem of overflowing sewage contaminating the East Bay Municipal Utility District San Pablo Reservoir was scheduled as a major topic for discussion at the meeting of the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District Board of Directors meeting last night following receipt of a letter from EBMUD.

The letter, addressed to the directors, stated in part:

"It is our understanding that no significant changes have been made in your lower Orinda and Moraga pumping stations since last winter."

"FOLLOWING OUR LETTER of January 5, 1953, we were assured that certain steps would be taken to eliminate the hazard to our reservoir. However, if no expansion work has been done to the pumping plants we assume that they will again overflow into our reservoir."

"We are fully aware of the magnitude of the problem which you face and we are sure you will agree that the discharge of sewage into our reservoirs cannot continue."

County Director of Sanitation Thomas McMorrow, who was to be at the meeting which occurred after the SUN went to press, said that he had received copies of the letter and suggested a joint meeting between representatives of the utility district, the sanitary district and himself.

"THAT MEETING was tentatively scheduled for October 13," he said, "and I am going to recommend that it still be held."

"Of course," he continued, "the escape of any raw sewage into a reservoir is a serious matter. Treatment takes out any harmful bacteria, but keeping a continual watch makes the cost of treatment rise and the possible danger of contamination goes up if a reservoir is subjected to this type of material."

He explained that he felt that eventually the sanitary district would have to rebuild their lines in the Orinda-Moraga area and increase the capacity of the pumps, but that for the present there are possible simpler remedies.

"WHAT I WANT the sanitary district to do," he said, "is to maintain a crew to patrol the sewer lines, manhole by manhole. They should check all their roof leaders and possible means of infiltration of water into the sewer lines."

"If they will do this, and check all their joints to make sure there is a minimum amount of leakage, I think the problem will be alleviated—at least for a while."

"After all," he continued, "the overflow only occurs once or twice a year, and it seems to me that if this problem of infiltration can be licked then the problem of sewage overflow will take care of itself."

HE SAID THAT he did not think that would be a permanent solution, but that it would certainly help.

Also scheduled to be discussed at the meeting were the annexations of Clayton Valley area and the Southern Public Utility District

Building May Go To Center Site

Orinda Association directors agreed Monday night to investigate possibility of moving the Cross Roads Restaurant building to Orinda Community Center property, for use for organizations' meetings and other purposes.

At the same time, the board, meeting at Orinda School, rejected proposals for transferring the Bradley's Market building to the Community Center site and erection of a General Petroleum Corporation filling station on Center land.

The Cross Roads Restaurant building was suggested as a possible Community Center structure by Jack Cooper.

President Peter Veitch said he had heard "a rumor" that the building, which will have to be removed from its present location because of the Orinda Interchange project, could be obtained for the cost of moving it.

The matter was referred to the Community Center Committee. Committee Chairman Kirk Miles said his group will look into the subject.

The Cross Roads Restaurant is on the north side of Mt. Diablo Boulevard, a short distance west of Orinda Highway.

REGARDING BRADLEY'S Market on Brookwood Road, which will have to be moved to allow for construction of a cloverleaf approach, Frank Cayting reported he had discussed with Miles the suggestion that the structure could be obtained for the cost of moving it.

He said that Miles' committee had already gone into the matter thoroughly and felt that the building was not desirable for the Community Center.

Elaborating on this, Miles told the directors that he and his committee members, Bob Harrison and Bob Anthonisen, had carefully studied the idea last spring.

"WE LOOKED at the building and came to the conclusion that it's not the type desirable for the Community Center," Miles said.

"Furthermore, the cost of moving it apparently wouldn't be worthwhile. We were told that it cost $2000 to move it across the highway from its former location to Brookwood Road and that it might cost two or three times as much to move it to Community Center land."

The board agreed to drop the idea.

GENERAL PETROLEUM Corporation's request for a conference on its interest in establishing a filling station at the northeast corner of Orinda Highway and Irwin Way met with unanimous rejection by the Community Center Committee.

"The committee is unanimously opposed to selling or leasing Community Center land for business purposes such as that," Miles said. "The deed specifically states that the property is to be used for educational, religious, charitable and similar purposes. If the property is used for business, the deed would undoubtedly have to be changed."

"BUT THE COMMITTEE is opposed to the idea regardless of legality. It's true that income would result. But in thinking of the Community Center, we must think of the needs of Orinda, on both sides (Continued on Page 3)

United Crusade Workers to Begin Drive Here to Benefit Seven Groups

Workers of the Mt. Diablo Advisory Board to the East Bay United Crusade will go out among their friends and neighbors Tuesday as the organization's first fund drive gets under way.

An affiliate of the East Bay United Crusade, the drive will represent seven charity and service organizations active in this area. (See editorial in today's SUN.)

Goal for the whole Bay Area has been set at $10,245,000 by the Federation of United Crusades, a new association which is conducting its first joint campaign this year.

THIS SUN is sought to finance health, welfare and youth organizations in Alameda, Contra Costa, San Francisco, Marin and San Mateo Counties.

Of the total $3,242,000 is sought for 155 different organizations in the 1200-square mile East Bay United Crusade area.

A goal of $150,000 has been set by the United Crusade in Contra Costa County. Duncan Knudsen, campaign chairman of the Diablo Valley Area United Crusade, revealed last week.

The goal is to be raised by the Diablo Valley Concord and Martinez Crusade units.

"Give-where-you-work" solicitation will begin Tuesday in commercial and industrial firms, in small businesses and among public employees and military personnel. The intensive 10-day campaign for on-the-job contributions is scheduled to close October 16.

THEN WOMEN VOLUNTEERS will call on those residents of Walnut Creek, Lafayette, Orinda and other communities throughout the five-county area who do not contribute through their place of employment.

A telecast over all three Bay Area TV stations, KRON, KPXS and KGO-TV from 6 to 7 p. m. Sunday will officially open the 1953 Crusade. It will be the first time Bay Area television stations have given across-the-board time for a charity appeal.

Theme of the program will be "Half a Chance." Written and produced by Lee Giroux, it will be announced by Bill Baldwin. Walter O'Keefe will be master of ceremonies.

PROMINENT TELEVISION and radio personalities who will appear include: Marvin Miller, who will be the "United Crusade Story Teller," six of the Mason-Kahn dancers, and the Bill Gaven octet.

Those who have been invited include: Hoagy Carmichael, Dennis Day, Buddy Cole, Carmen Dragon and his orchestra, Gordon McRae, and Dorothy Wenzelkopf, nationally-known opera singer, whose home town is Piedmont.

Also participating will be the Olympic Club glee club, 12 Boy Scouts from the California School for the Deaf in Berkeley, and members of the Columbus Park Boy Club from San Francisco, who will demonstrate acrobatics on the trampoline.

Heading the Crusade campaign in this community is Duncan Knudsen, community cooperation chairman.

Crusade workers will be the backbone of the drive. Knudsen said, "ORVILLE JONES will be the campaign's co-chairman. Ford Tusting will head the advance gifts committee. Business district com-

Elected to head the next conference in 1954 was Dan Larscheid, Post 305, Pleasant Hill. He will be assisted by Keith Thompson, Post 306, Danville, and Phil Hunter, Post 300, Danville.

"THE PATROL METHOD" and "Land and Live in the Jungle" were two popular films used in the training conference. Discussions centered around the job of the patrol leader, patrol meetings, hiking with the patrol, and camping with the patrol.

The leaders attending the conference camped out on the Oak Park School grounds that Saturday night. Religious services were held Sunday morning.

Food preparation and serving was under the supervision of Scoutmaster Ray Suttill of Troop 205 and was handled in the school cafeteria.

Opening speaker of the conference was Victor Lindblad, scout executive of Mt. Diablo Council.

Girl Scouting Leaders' Course Now Being Given

Second of eight weekly classes of a basic training course for Girl Scout leaders and potential leaders will be given Wednesday night at Acalanes High School, from 8 to 10 o'clock.

The course, open to women throughout the territory of the Diablo Valley Area Girl Scout Council, is conducted every Wednesday evening by Phyllis Jones of Oakland. First session was held this week.

Mrs. Jones has given several successful courses at Acalanes on youth leadership.

The new Girl Scout leadership course is being offered through the Adult Education Department at Acalanes.

Bowling Tournament Will Aid Current Therapy Center Building Fund Drive

Bowling enthusiasts from throughout northern California will take to the alleys October 17 through November 29 in a benefit tournament to aid the current "Operation Good Neighbor" appeal for funds for the construction of a new building to house the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center.

Scene of the action will be at the Berkeley Bowl, Richmond Bowl, Uptown Bowl, Pittsburg Bowl, Vogue Lanes, Antioch Bowl and Paddock Bowl.

The long list of the valuable prizes, coupled with the humanitarian appeal, is expected to attract nearly 10,000 registers from such distant points as Sacramento, Stockton and Reno, Nevada.

THE ORINDA ORIOLES, women's auxiliary group which functions throughout the year as a fund-raising branch of the Center, is sponsoring the tournament, which will be one of the largest such events ever conducted in this area.

Mrs. Tom Moore, of Orinda, chairman of the tournament committee, reports that her committee workers have already secured over 300 prizes and are still adding to the list.

Participating bowlers will be aiding one of the most unusual therapy enterprises in the nation. The Center serves the physically handicapped of Contra Costa County, with some patients coming for treatment from areas outside of the county.

IT IS UNIQUE in the nation as a therapy center created and maintained by good neighbors from the community served. No governmental grants or endowments from national foundations figure in the Center's operations.

The Center was created in 1949 through the interest and efforts of a group of Walnut Creek residents, who became aware of the growing need in the area for a properly designed and equipped therapy center to rehabilitate all physically handicapped persons, regardless of the nature of their affliction.

In January, 1950, the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center was incorporated under the laws of the State of California, as a non-profit community project. First quarters were secured in a small house in Lafayette.

Soon the growing demands for treatments made it necessary to move the Center to the Highland Medical Building in Walnut Creek.

THE TREMENDOUS population growth of the area served now taxes the Center's facilities to a point where a new building is necessary and once again the good neighbors of Contra Costa County have rallied to the cause with a public appeal for funds with which to construct the new building, to be located on Hookston Road, Walnut Creek.

Four acres of land have been acquired and plans are being drawn for a Center which will provide for the predictable needs of the physically handicapped for years to come. A goal of $75,000 has been

Playshop Melo In Final Shows This Weekend

The last two performances of "Love Rides the Rails" are being presented by Lafayette Playshop at Lafayette Town Hall tonight and tomorrow night. Curtain time is 8:15.

Although the show has played throughout the month of September, the players are far from being exhausted.

Can-can girls are kicking higher and singing louder, despite the fact that busy prestidigitator Jack Holder saws one of these beautiful women in half every performance.

Putting them back together is the secret of his success and the continued appearance of the entire cast in this wacky play and olio. Beer and other refreshments are served during the performance.

Zamloch reported here from the U. S. Naval Air Technical Training Center, Norman, Okla.

He was employed by the U. S. Civil Service in San Francisco, prior to entering Naval service.

set in "Operation Good Neighbor" and members of the Oriole auxiliary express the hope that the bowling tournament will play an important part in making the new structure possible.

The tournament committee plans gala kick-off activities at all of the bowls on the opening afternoon, with patients from the Center and campaign leaders participating. All bowlers are urged to enter the tournament and make a ten strike against the ravages of crippling diseases and accidents.

Girl Scout Drive Adds 1 More Week

The current fund drive of the Diablo Valley Girl Scout Council will be continued for one more week, it was reported this week.

Workers will continue to solicit for the local Girl Scout Council, spending the remaining week in the outlying areas, according to authorities.

OVER 1000 workers are in the field seeking funds to perpetuate Girl Scouting in the area. All the funds collected in the local drive will be spent locally, spokesmen explain, adding that there are no paid solicitors.

The Diablo Valley Council serves Alamo, Danville, Lafayette, Orinda, Pleasant Hill, Walnut Creek and Yencio Valley.

IN THE COMING season the council anticipates the need of serving 4000 active members this is almost four times the membership of the council in 1949.

The budget committee has set a goal of $25,000 as a conservative estimate of the minimum amount that will be required to complete the program for the coming year that is planned.

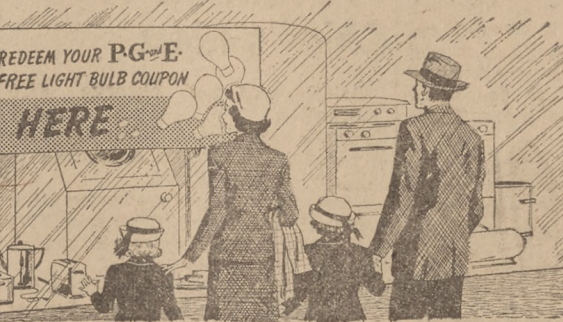

Leon Rahn, chairman of this year's fund drive, points out that "every community represented needs Girl Scouting, but it can only be made possible through the generosity of people in the area."

Young Marksmen Face Get-Tough Law Enforcement

Juvenile marksmen who are shooting in violation of a county ordinance and are causing estimated thousands of dollars damage annually will themselves be a target in a get-tough policy announced Wednesday by the Sheriff's Department.

A county ordinance prohibits possession of a gun or air rifle by anyone less than 16 years, unless accompanied by an adult. Lt. Harry Brown of the Sheriff's Department pointed out.

He said under the new policy, guns will be confiscated from violators and they face possible $500 fine and three months in jail.

The ordinance was passed in 1951 when a railroad fireman was killed at Martinez by a wayward bullet from a juvenile's gun.

Brown said damage had been particularly heavy in the Central County.

Sheriff, District Attorney Obscuring Issue of Anti-Pinball Law, Judge Says

This week Sheriff James Long and District Attorney Francis Collins were charged with obscuring the issue of a proposed county ordinance on pin-ball machines.

Judge Donald F. Creedon of Rodeo recently asked county supervisors to write a new law prohibiting minors from playing pin-balls.

When the issue came up last week, both Collins and Long criticized Creedon for comments about over-the-counter pay-offs which he had made while discussing the problem.

BOTH INDICATED that they wanted such matters to be brought to the attention of law enforcement authorities before being made public knowledge. At Long's request, action on the law was delayed.

"A reference to 'pay-offs' by these machines has now been permitted to obscure the entire issue," Creedon said in a letter to supervisors this week.

"I have been taken to task for mentioning 'pay-offs' publicly, and the entire matter of whether or not minors should be prevented by law from access to these pin-ball machines has been suspended by a dissertation on how any information on 'pay-offs' should be reported and the duties of citizenship," he continued.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Other "public" mention of pin-ball operations and illegal pay-offs was made in the columns of THE SUN earlier this year.

Three weeks after SUN stories revealed operation of illegal machines and illegal pay-offs throughout the county, the machines were removed from the Walnut Creek-Lafayette-Orinda area.

(Illegal pin-ball operations continue elsewhere in Contra Costa County, however.)

GOING BACK to his original request, Creedon's letter to county supervisors continued, "My letter was quite clear. I asked that an ordinance be prepared to prevent children, too young to know that they are being victimized, from using these pin-ball machines."

(Editor's note: In the local area, young children were gambling on pin-ball machines in at least one establishment, until illegal operations were shut down, following a series of stories in THE SUN.)

"This 'nickel-stealing' from children was referred by letter and press release to the board to bring about passage of a law . . ." Creedon explained.

THIS ACTION was "not a side-stepping of authority, as has been alleged," Creedon wrote this week, adding that referring the matter to the board was proper.

Creedon's latest letter went on to praise both the sheriff's and the district attorney's office for administration of their duties.

It added, however, that "criticism has been leveled at me by these men, who, I hope have simply misinterpreted motive."

Doyle Tells Group He'll Run Again

The first regular meeting of the Orinda Women's Republican Club was held September 24 at the Orinda Community Church.

Donald Doyle, assemblyman, spoke on the accomplishments of the legislature in Sacramento. He stated that he would run for the Assembly in the next state elections, also he stressed the importance of electing a Republican to Congress next year.

The attendance at the meeting was large, which proves that Orinda Republican Women are taking this responsibility seriously and each felt that Mr. Doyle had measured up to his qualifications as a Republican in the State Assembly," said a representative of the group.

Catholic Women To Meet Tuesday

Tuesday the Santa Maria Catholic Women's Club will hold its monthly meeting.

There will be the usual business agenda and refreshments will be served.

The meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Joseph A. Fazio, 15 Owl Hill Road. Mrs. Fazio has kindly offered her home to the club as its regular meeting place, until the new church and hall are built.

All the ladies of the parish are invited to attend the meeting. If anyone needs transportation, would she please call Mrs. Joseph Golden, Orinda 8279, or Mrs. Ned de Lavaga, Orinda 9461.

Board Prepares Election Steps For Association

Steps were taken by the Orinda Association board Monday night to assure the on-schedule clicking of the forthcoming annual election of association directors.

Meeting at Orinda School, the board approved boundaries for the nine directorship areas as suggested by the Civic Affairs Committee. Since the number of county election precincts has increased from 14 to 19 in the past year, it was necessary to rearrange the precincts included in the various board areas.

THE OCTOBER 19 meeting of Civic Affairs will decide on the candidates whose names will be placed on the ballot, it was announced by Joseph Creighton, Civic Affairs temporary chairman. Creighton is "pinch-hitting" for Chairman Frank Hart, whose time is practically all taken up at present with extra activity on his job in San Francisco.

Tevis Thompson has been named chairman of the committee handling the election by Creighton.

TO BE ELECTED in November are five directors, who will take office January 1.

Directors whose terms are expiring are President Peter Veitch, Vice-President Everett Howe, Mrs. T. P. Bacon Jr., secretary; Charles Blue and Jack Cooper. Veitch will be a board member-at-large next year.

Veitch, reporting for Hart, stated that a number of local improvement clubs had submitted names of suggested candidates.

Sact. - Northern Track Removal

abandon its 15 miles of Sacramento Northern tracks from 40th and Shafter to West Lafayette station.

These applications, Fordyce said, could be filed prior to the effective date of the Union Street franchise, with the understanding that they are contingent on the franchise actually being granted.

Fordyce estimated it would take "at least six months" for the ICC authorizations to be obtained.

The Sacramento Northern tracks involved, according to Fordyce, include about six miles in Oakland and about nine miles in Contra Costa County.

"IT IS STILL our plan to tear up the tracks and sell them for salvage, but we would be willing to discuss the matter with anyone interested in obtaining the right of way or the tracks," Fordyce said.

"Naturally, if some other party were interested in using the tracks for commuter or rapid transit service, they would be more valuable remaining where they are than if they were torn up."

PRESIDENT F. B. Whitman of Western Pacific declared this week that the "four short blocks of single railroad tracks for which the Oakland City Council passed its intention to grant a franchise . . . will result in advantages to the City of Oakland that are surprising for such a small project."

He listed the following as "some of the things this short stretch of tracks will accomplish" in Oakland:

1. Removal of Sacramento Northern tracks "on narrow Shafter Avenue and through the residential Montclair district."

2. Removal of tracks from the vicinity of seven schools. No new hazard to school children "because use of Union Street tracks will be restricted to night-time hours."

3. Elimination of freight train operations on 40th Street.

4. Elimination of 44 grade crossings, while only six new grade crossings will be created.

5. "A right of way four and three-tenths miles long, between the upper end of Shafter Avenue and the Shepherd Canyon tunnel, will be available for possible use as a highway or in a rapid transit system. If not used for one of these purposes, it could be used for residences, thus adding additional tax revenues. Some 10 acres of land will become available for use that could add to the tax revenue."

6. "Improved freight service will be rendered to the Oakland Army Base, as well as to some 40 industries on the Oakland Terminal Railway tracks."

Glorietta Group To Hold Annual Party Oct. 10

Glorietta Improvement Association members have been notified to set aside the evening of October 10 from 8-12 p.m. for the association's annual party.

For the third year the generosity of the Ted Harkers in offering their home has made possible this notable evening of fun, food and dancing. The fun comes when newcomers and old timers—anyone who has been to a previous party is an old timer—renew friendships and rejoice in an evening's freedom from the yoke of mortgage, star thistle, and the short supply of baby sitters.

The food will be a buffet supper at 11 p.m. and will be designed to revive guests whose efforts on the dance floor or in the Harkers' new indoor swimming pool have created the usual ravenous appetites. Dancing will be to the music of a live orchestra in the playroom.

The annual party this year, as in previous years, should prove to be the happiest way to bring members and prospective members of the Glorietta Improvement Association together for a delightful evening and to start a year of constructive activity in their neighborhood and community.

The cost per person is $2.50. Reservations may be made by calling Charles Nelson, Orinda 8566.

Suggested By-Law Changes Discussed

Amendment of Orinda Association by-laws regarding nomination and election of directors was proposed by the association's Reorganization Committee Monday night.

Directors, meeting at Orinda School, discussed the proposal at length but took no action.

The committee report, submitted by Chairman Nathan Gray, was read by President Peter Veitch, in the absence of Gray, Gray was unable to be present because of a special meeting in Richmond of the Jacuzzi Brothers, Inc., board, of which he is chairman.

PREPARED by Gray and committee members Stanley Allen and Clinton Hallsted, the proposal suggests that:

1. Candidates be nominated by local improvement clubs, written petition of 20 residents of a district or resolution of the Civic Affairs Committee.

2. Association ballots contain essential information about each candidate, including name, address, business and how nominated; clear identification of districts involved; explanation of who is eligible to vote.

THE PROPOSAL suggested that nominations be made by November 20 each year and that the election be held in December.

However, directors expressed the belief that this was too late a schedule, since it would conflict with the holiday season.

Veitch pointed out that the proposed amendment was but the first of a number of contemplated changes in association by-laws and that the entire project was a long-range one.

"We may be able to get through it all by next year," he commented.

Building for Center Site

"We cannot see that this filling station would bring in enough revenue for the Community Center. There would have to be some additional form of income, either through taxation or through the town's incorporating."

"THE LOCATION is a poor place for a filling station. It's close to the Orinda School and so a traffic hazard would result.

"A filling station would not be in keeping with our type of planning for the Community Center.

"The committee recommends that the association thank the company but that we inform it that we are not interested in discussing the proposition at this time."

MOTION THAT this action be taken was made by Cayting, seconded by Vice-President Everett Howe.

After the motion was unanimously passed, President Peter Veitch instructed Mrs. T. P. Bacon Jr., secretary, to inform A. J. Schlectmann, real estate representative of General Petroleum, of the board's decision. Schlectmann had made the request for the firm.

About our happy Country Folks

By EDITH BOLMAN

If you are bored with Orinda (obviously impossible or we wouldn't have mentioned it) why not move to Africa and hob nob with such recent nabobs as lions, tigers, Clyde Beatty, Deborah Kerr, Stewart Granger, Clark Gable and Joan Liddell.

Miss Liddell, pronounced LIDDell with the accent fore instead of aft because she is British (did you know that the British pronounce aluminum — aluminneeyum) has been a recent house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Goodwin. Also visiting were Mrs. Goodwin's brother and sister-in-law from Baltimore, Mr. and Mrs. William Terry.

They have been experiencing the customary tour treatment of Bay area spots and everyone was entranced with Miss Liddell because of her experiences while living in Kenya Colony and serving as coordinator between that area and the movie moguls for the production of King Solomon's Mines and the yet to be released Mogambo.

Fancy being the type of girl who can organize a safari before breakfast — safari as we know there is no one hereabouts who can do much of anything like that — before breakfast of course.

And now for paragraph 2. Incidentally we are never quite sure where paragraph 2 will appear because we must have been out of school the day the teacher explained paragraphing. The obvious result of that is that we haven't paragraphed since and Mr. Newspaper is hard put to figure where we leave off one idea and start another. He handles the problem quite whimsically (except the week paragraph 2 landed on the cutting room floor).

BUT ANYWAY WE HAVE decided that paragraph 2 should always be devoted to the most recent machinations of the ladies of the Orinda Branch. Did you know that you may remember friends on their birthdays, anniversaries, when they have babies or get elected to something (the two latter being indulged in with equal enthusiasm by Orinda Housewives) by sending a remembrance to the Children's Hospital?

The Hospital in turn notifies your friend in most attractive fashion of your thoughtfulness and publishes in the Bambino, the hospital paper, the names of the donor and receiver. A great help to the friends of the friend who has everything.

Mr. Maker is home from Dark Lake where he spent most of the summer. Certain members of the Trout family of Dark Lake are probably jolly well pleased that he is. Contrary to the hunting practices of his ancestors who had a penchant for rabbits, Mr. Maker absorbed certain fishing interests from his friends and co-owners, the Ambrose Macdonalds.

One sparkling day the threesome went out in the rowboat after some rainbows for dinner and Mr. Maker became so excited over the possibilities that he lost control of his short legs and long torso (Mr. Maker is a Dachshund) and fell out of the boat. Being in a life saving mood Mr. Macdonald promptly dived in after him, then Mrs. Macdonald joined the splashes. Then Rodney, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Walter Cole of Southwood Drive in Orinda, went to the rescue and pulled them all out. Mr. Maker has not been fishing since.

IN THE MEANTIME the Macdonalds have been enjoying their cabin, situated in a grove of Christmas trees and have invited friends such as the Milton Selbys and the Jefferson Larkeys for weekends, ostensibly for the purpose, we gather, of helping with the painting and upholstering chores necessary for the readying of a new home.

Golfers — brace yourselves — tomorrow and Sunday Mrs. Nels Hamburg, George Merriam and Joseph Downs will be parked on and around the 8th tee to sell you two chances for a dollar to win several wonderful prizes.

All you have to do is to place your drive within specified areas on the green — or — make a hole in one. Elementary really. The "take" goes toward the new building for the Therapy Center and the Tanagers are sponsoring the event.

And speaking of postmen on a holiday — Jim Hall who spent the summer in Alaska studying Biological Aid with the United States Fish and Wild Life Service and Bob Wickman who went to the Forestry Summer Camp in Plymouth County came home from their various assignments and promptly headed for the high Sierras on a pack trip together.

In August Dr. Ralph Hall took Explorer Scout Post 300 to King's County. There were 20 boys and in order to keep everything on the up and up the following Fathers went along: Messers Joseph Sheaff, Peter Vieth, Robert Harrison, Al Meyer, James DeKorne and Paul Kops.

New baby Kieth Patrick Fitch will soon be bringing his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kieth Fitch back home to Orinda to stay after 3½-years away.

AND SO, AS LUCK would have it, one Red Blanchard of radio fame chose to grace the Walnut Festival at Walnut Creek. The young from far and near decorated their noggins with paraphernalia indescribable in an attempt to catch the eye of their idol.

The one we saw was an erratic arrangement of pins and dood-dads attached to an antique Stanford rooters cap, and like the helmets of old with a plume floating from the top, there was a sign painted luminescent red on gold paper, which gave it a 3D effect, saying ZORCH. That is all.

'Forgiveness' To Be Sermon Theme

Sunday is World Wide Communion Sunday. There will be a special Communion service at the Lafayette Community Methodist Church at both the 8:30 and the 11 a.m. services. New members will be received at both services.

"Sunday, millions of Christians around the globe will join in celebrating World-Wide Communion Sunday. In every land where Christ is exalted men and women will gather to praise his name and seek forgiveness for their transgressions. As they partake of the blessed elements they will pledge anew their loyalty to our Savior and his one, new with God's Children in the universal Kingdom of our Lord," said Reverend Harry E. Shaner and

Ray Welles New Assistant At Orinda Church

Ray L. Welles Jr., who is the new student assistant at the Orinda Community Church, is a second year student at the Pacific School of Religion and is a native of South Pasadena, California, where he is a member of the Oneonta Congregational Church.

He graduated from Pomona College, and spent his first year of Seminary training at Yale Divinity School, New Haven, Conn. While in his junior year of high school he attended the youth group of the local church and there first became interested in the church.

He was an officer of that group and also Missionary Action Chairman of the Southwest Conference of P.F.

In 1948 he traveled with a group from his church to England, Scotland and Ireland where they engaged in youth work among the British churches.

He was in many activities in college and during the last three years was Youth Director and Student Assistant in the Etiwanda Congregational Church and the San Dimas Community Church.

The summer of 1950 he was youth worker at his home church, and in 1951 he traveled to Maine where he was a summer worker at a rural larger parish of seven churches.

Upon graduation from Pomona he traveled with his wife to Europe for three months and then returned to Yale. Last summer he was the Summer Interim Minister of the Arcadia Congregational Church, a new suburban church in Southern California.

He is very interested in the youth of the churches and is training for the Pastoral Ministry.

Covenant Church Holds Exercises

Last Sunday morning the Lafayette Covenant Church observed Promotion Day in the church school.

Dick Lotter, superintendent, was in charge. Each department, from the beginners through the senior shared in the Promotion Day exercises.

Bob Peterson, member of the senior youth class, read the Bible lesson, and the intermediate girls sang very beautifully the song, "Only To Be What He Wants Me To Be." Mrs. William Hartman is the teacher of the intermediate class.

The grade 4 class, which was promoted to the junior department, recited several memory verses from the Bible as their contribution to the program, and each member was awarded a Bible in recognition of his promotion.

The pupils receiving Bibles were Kenny Ball, Nancy Peterson, Sandra Myers, Steven Crandall, Anita Jenkins and Lynn Stiller.

The upper beginners class, wearing their pretty white graduation caps trimmed with blue ribbons, were given New Testaments in recognition of their promotion.

The members of this class are Eric Wood, Jojo Drake, Susan Thomas, Linda Myers, Joey Valdez, Cathy Anderson and Vicky Engelbrektson.

The whole beginners department contributed several memory passages and sang a number of lovely songs. Mrs. Ed Peterson is in charge of this division. Mrs. R. G. Ball is the primary superintendent.

The Promotion Day exercises were conducted so as to coincide as nearly as possible with the beginning of the fall term for both the public school and the church school program.

Your Garden

Soil Needs Organic Matter—You Can Have Your Own Conditioner 'Factory'

By BERT WRIGHT

MAINTAINING ORGANIC MATTER in your soil is an important part of successful gardening.

One of the main reasons that farmers rotate their crops is to keep up a good level of soil organic matter.

Adding organic matter to a soil is by no means a cure-all, as some folks seem to believe.

It does, however, open up heavy soil, permitting air to penetrate.

On the other hand, it increases the water-holding capacity of sandy soil. Further, it contains some plant food, and the presence of organic matter in the soil helps to release plant nutrients from soil minerals into available form.

MOST GARDENERS cannot practice crop rotation, or have their access to the other main source of organic matter on farms—animal manures.

It is possible, however, to keep soil in good physical condition by maintaining a couple compost heaps. Composting materials may be piled in a shady, out-of-the-way corner of the garden, or back of the garage.

Into them can go all types of garden refuse, such as grass clippings, corn stalks, leaves and weeds that have not formed seeds.

VEGETABLE MATERIALS should be placed in layers, each about 8 inches thick and covered with a thin layer of garden soil.

Since the bacteria, which break down this raw vegetable material into crumbly, decomposed compost, require extra nitrogen and phosphorus to do their job, it is a good idea to sprinkle each layer of plant material with a compost maker.

In addition to hastening the process of decomposition, this material will enrich the compost, making it a more valuable source of plant nutrients.

ALTERNATE LAYERS of vegetable material and soil can be built up to a height of 3 or 4 feet.

If the pile is surrounded by wire fencing or wood sides, to keep the sides vertical, the layers may be built up somewhat higher.

Each layer should be thoroughly soaked with a garden hose, or the top of the heap should be dished to catch the rain water.

It is totally unnecessary to add a "compost activator," earthworms or worm food. The compost maker you sprinkle on each layer is the only activator needed, and the worms will come in droves of their own accord.

COMPOSTED MATERIAL that is accumulated during one gardening season will be ready to spade into the soil late next spring.

Navlet Nursery Provides Novel Stock Set-Up

Ease of shopping for landscape material by the inexperienced home gardener in the Walnut Creek-Concord Area, is the idea behind the new arrangement of all nursery stock at the Navlet Nursery, Pleasant Hill, which has expanded to four times its original size since its opening two years ago.

Realizing the confusion that usually greets a new gardener when confronted by a large group of shrubs, trees, vines and other landscape plants, all unfamiliar to him, Navlet's has used a new approach to nursery layout.

"All plants of a certain size group," states Bert Bertolero, owner, "now have a section of their own, and are further separated according to their own shade or sun requirements. This makes it possible for a new gardener, who knows he wants a three foot shrub for the sunny side of his home, to go directly to the well-marked section and choose from among the many shrubs located there."

All plants are clearly marked so that evergreens, native plants, those who lose their leaves in winter, and each type of plant has a spot of its own, and can be selected with utmost ease.

The reorganization was completed under the direction of Bertolero, Robert Franklin and Harold C. Scott of the Navlet Store.

Here's Your New Garden Checklist

Flowers, lawns, weeds—even spiders—are listed in this week's Gardener's Checklist presented by the California Association of Nurserymen.

Here is the current checklist:

1. PLANT a low cover crop of flowers over tulip and daffodil beds.

After planting the bulbs, sow these seeds over the top: Virginia stock, sweet alyssum, anemallis and baby blue eyes. Plants of pansies, violas and baby primrose may also be used for this purpose.

2. PLANT Dutch Iris now.

This is the best iris for a cut flower. Plant in the sun in well-drained soil.

3. LAWNS should be seeded now so that they can become established before cold weather.

4. REMOVE weeds from the lawn by applying a selective weed killer. Spray the weeds away!

5. RED SPIDER are causing considerable damage in many gardens. Your nurseryman will recommend a control.

How to Build Outdoor Brick Barbecue

An outdoor barbecue fireplace is easy and interesting to build, for anyone handy with tools.

Selecting the site is the first and most important step.

If you want your fireplace on a patio, terrace or back porch, check the prevailing winds to determine which way the smoke will blow.

If you plan it in a corner of your back yard, shrubbery or hedges may provide a fine screen for privacy but also may determine the height of chimney required.

PLAN THE OPENING of the fireplace so that it faces prevailing winds. In this way you will be assured of a good draft and freedom from smoke in your eyes.

A site with natural drainage is best. Newly filled areas should be avoided.

Forms are not needed for footings, but for the slab a wood form will permit a rise of two inches above grade.

Half-inch round reinforcing bars are laid in the slab after the first two inches are poured. Then the last two inches are added and smoothed off.

BEST CONCRETE mix for a slab is one part Portland cement, two parts clean dry sand, three and one-half parts gravel or crushed stone. Since the strength of concrete depends on the amount of water used, it is best not to exceed five gallons per sack of cement.

Mix two batches—one before the reinforcing bars are laid, one after.

Concrete begins to set within a half-hour. Then allow the slab to cure for 48 hours or more, keeping it damp with burlap and spraying.

IN BUILDING a brick fireplace, order at least 2 per cent more brick than you figure you'll need. This will allow for breakage and error.

Bricks should not be laid dry. Spray them with the hose for an hour or two before using. When wet.

MAKE A DRY run before using any mortar. Draw the outline of the fireplace with your chalk on the foundation slab.

This should be two inches in from the edge. Keep this in mind when planning the dimensions of the slab.

Allow for half-inch mortar joints. Square the corners.

Lay up the first two courses dry to make sure that the bond, or pattern, you plan to use will work laid, they should be damp but not out at the corners. If the dry run

Dons, Pirates Open League Play Tonight

The Acalanes Dons open league play tonight when they tangle with the Pittsburg Pirates under the lights of Acalanes Memorial Field. Kickoff is slated for 8 o'clock sharp.

The Dons to date have played but one practice game, which they lost to Piedmont in a nip-and-tuck battle by a 12-6 score.

Pittsburg, defending co-champion with Mt. Diablo, has a loss and a tie on its practice record, having dropped a 6-0 decision to Bellamarine Prep and playing a 12-12 tie with Monterey last Friday night.

BOTH ELEVENs were hit hard by graduation but the Dons fared better than the Pirates, who have but three returning lettermen, compared to the Dons' seven.

The Dons appear to have excellent team-balance and the speed to match the Pirates, who have always relied on quick opening plays to make their T offense go.

COACH TONY KNAp has yet to lose a league game in three years of play.

But he appears to have a tough row to hoe with a green squad largely up from last year's Junior Varsity.

In Charles Esposito the Pirates have a speed burner at left half, but the Dons can counter with Bob Carlson and Richie Munn who can also get over the ground plenty fast.

In Fred Holland the Pirates have a hard-running fullback, but the Dons have what is probably the league's best in 215-pound Ray Williamson.

THE DONS OUTWEIGH the visitors in the line and have a very mobile unit up forward that could well develop into the county's best. The Dons definitely hold an edge in weight and experience.

It remains to be seen how well they can perform in a league opener after a week's layoff.

Don Team Trims Knight Gridders In 13-6 Clash

The Acalanes Dons and Las Lomas Knights met up last Friday night and when the last whistle had blown the Dons had a 13-6 win tucked under their belt.

Inasmuch as Las Lomas is a three-year school, the Dons played minus Seniors.

It turned out to be a well-played ball game, with a stubborn Acalanes defense plus the scintillating play of Halfback Mike Barrett proving to be the difference.

BARRETT SET the pace early in the first quarter when he tucked the pigskin under his arm on the Dons' own 4-yard line and scampered 92 yards before being hauled down on the Las Lomas 4 by speedy Rick Ostrom.

From there Dennis Busby smashed over and Red Jones booted the conversion try smack through the middle of the uprights, to make it 7-0.

LAS LOMAS got back in the ball game in a hurry, however, when it tallied in the second period.

It all came about when the Dons' defense held for two downs on the 40, only to have Rick Ostrom fade back and toss an aerial to End Ed Kinney, who raced the necessary distance to make the count 7-6.

That's the way it stayed when Andy Fadelli blocked the conversion try.

THE TEAMS BATTLED back and forth, with each losing scoring opportunities until early in the fourth quarter when elusive scat-back Mike Barrett gave a brilliant exhibition of open field running, to score standing up.

This occurred when Barrett took a screen pass up the middle from Red Jones, cut to the left, crossed back and left the safety man standing flat-footed and scored, with the play covering some 70 yards.

Jones was wide on the conversion try.

That's the way the game ended, as neither club was able to reach pay dirt again. It all ended up 13-6, in favor of the Acalanes Dons.

BOB KINYON was a standout for Las Lomas, producing some hard running, while Quarterback Bob Lucas did some good ball handling.

Rick Ostrom played a bang-up game at defense—and kept the Acalanes defense busy with his hard running.

The Dons' line, as a whole, played well, with Pete Villa and Gary Gudnason standouts at the flank positions, while Andy Fadelli was the workhorse as a linebacker.

Barrett was the backfield stand-out, with Larry Busby most effective on the short runs and hard defensive play.

SPORTS

Sideline Slants They All Use T Formation—For Which Eleven Will It Prove Most Effective?

By ERWIN MATTSON

ONE OF THE INTERESTING THINGS in connection with football in Contra Costa County is that every one of the teams uses the T formation.

Alhambra uses the single wing version in addition to the T. Last year Coach Jim Coulter of Alhambra used the single wing exclusively. He made the change-over this year.

Many have felt that the T would lose its popularity long before this, but it still remains the most versatile and effective mode of offense.

Single wing and other formations have met success at times.

Part of the success is due to the fact that few teams use other than the T, so any other lineup presents unfamiliar defensive assignments.

Quick scoring is a necessity in modern football if one is to stay in the win column very long.

ONE OF THE LONGEST win streaks in Contra Costa County is that of the Pittsburg Pirates, who invade Acalanes Memorial Field tonight.

Coach Tony Knap has been at the helm of the Pitt eleven for three years and has as yet to drop a league game.

His charges have won two titles and tied for another.

The tie came last season, when the Mt. Diablo crew played Pittsburg to a standstill.

Pittsburg has always put out good elevens and boasts more title teams than any other county eleven.

The win record has had a psychological effect on other county teams. Many teams that should have won from a team personnel point of view have lost.

Diablo on paper was two to three touchdowns the better club and did enjoy for a few brief moments a 2-touchdown lead, only to fold as the game neared its end and allow the Pirates to pull the game out of the fire.

If Pitt is to be dropped, this is the year to do it.

The Pirates lost a host of players via graduation, and this year's club is largely up from last year's Junior Varsity, which, while it copped the J. V. title, still lacks Varsity experience.

In their opener the Pirates lost to the Bellamare Preps, 6-0. They were tied by Monterey, 12-12.

It would be interesting and probably a good idea if Pitt were to drop several games, and that's what could happen this year.

As one coach pointed out, the Pittsburg Pirates put on their pants the same as anyone else.

THE LEAGUE GAME added proof over last weekend that the teams are stronger for the most part, than was the case last year, and woe to the team that lets its guard down on any given Friday!

The Dons' strength this year lies in team balance, with little dependence on any one individual. They are capable of scoring the first league win over Tony Knap's charges.

The Dons last defeated Pitt in 1946 by a 16-12 score when Acalanes first introduced the T to county play.

Several times since, the Dons have had the guns to do the job but couldn't get them to "boom" at the right time.

The game tonight could well be named the game of the week, as the winner stands an excellent chance of ending up on top of what promises to be the best grid race in Contra Costa prep history.

PH Hilltoppers Drop Antioch JV Grid Crew, 26-0

Pleasant Hill High's Hilltoppers won their second game in as many outings last week as they smashed the Antioch Jayvees, 26-0, on the Mt. Diablo High School field in Concord.

Joining Jim McMillan proved a Hilltopper stalwart for the second game as he scored one of the four touchdowns, ran up a considerable chunk of yardage, and added sterling defensive play.

THE HILLTOPPERS scored once in the first quarter, twice more by the half-time gun and added the final blow in the last quarter.

Two Antioch fumbles and an intercepted pass helped the high climbers to victory.

The first score of the game came after Ray Muzzi picked up an Antioch dropped ball 14 yards from Pleasant Hill paydirt.

Calvin Moore drove in for four yards, McMillan pushed down to the two and Moore carried the pigskin over. The extra point was missed.

Another Antioch fumble on their own 45 was recovered by Hilltopper Ron Hansen. McMillan pushed through for 15 on two tries. Then Moore made a 24-yard gallop for a touchdown and followed up by running over the extra counter.

McMILLAN'S high point, came when he picked off an Antioch pass near the mid-field stripe, headed for the sideline, shook off several tacklers and went on to score. Again conversion failed.

A pass in the final quarter from Steve Buckman on the Antioch 37 to Roger Phillips on the 20 became a touchdown as Phillips drove across to score again.

Bill Moen, Bob Enge, Phil Ruppert and Phillips were reported as turning in top line performances for the Hilltoppers.

Linn Sidelined By Heel Injury

Roger Linn, Acalanes grid ace of two years ago, has been sidelined for two weeks as the result of a bruised left heel but is expected back in action for College of the Pacific this weekend.

Roger performed brilliantly in his opening game for COP along with teammate Buzz Williams, another ex-Don who holds forth at a guard spot.

Both played a prominent part in Pacific's upset win over the Stanford Indians.

Both are sophomores and, on the basis of their showing to date, give promise of developing into two of the coast's best.

Pacific tackles Tulsa at Stockton tomorrow night.

Vikings to Meet San Jose Frosh

With most of their cripples' back on the active list, the East Contra Costa Junior College Vikings are expected to be at near-full strength tomorrow night when they make their 1953 home debut.

Their opponent will be the loaded San Jose State College Frosh, with kickoff at 8 p. m. in the Mt. Diablo High Stadium in Concord.

Fresh from their decisive 30-7 victory over the Vallejo J. C. Redskins last week, the Vikings are expected to have the services of Halfbacks Jimmy Briggs and Bill Koelman plus Fullback Don Angotti for the first time this season.

Quarterback Sam Indelicato of Walnut Creek, former Acalanes Don, missed the Vallejo tilt because of a bruised shoulder. He may not be in playing shape for the invading Spartan freshies.

Knights to Host Antioch Thursday

The Las Lomas Knights played host to the Albany Cougars yesterday and play game No. 4 in the Junior Varsity grid circuit when they match play with the Antioch Panthers next Thursday at Las Lomas at 3:30 p.m.

Coaches George Deklotz and Merrill Callow have a well-balanced unit that forced the Dons all the way to eke out a 13-6 win, and they are favorites to knock over the Antioch eleven that went down 27-6 before the Dons in the league opener two weeks ago.

IN HALFBACK Rick Ostrom the Knights have one of the best in the Junior Varsity grid ranks.

Bob Kinyon is developing into a hard-running back, along with the Orden brothers, Don and Ken.

'Do It Yourself' Is Theme of Many of Today's Home Projects in This Area

Theme of much of today's home-improvement and home-beautification activities is "Do it yourself!" That is particularly true in this area, where environment provides an ideal setting for casual, relaxed living.

With a power saw, a point roller or a pipe wrench in hand, Mr. and Mrs. Central Contra Costa observe: "There's so much more satisfaction in doing it ourselves. And it's cheaper. Hiring someone else all the time just costs too much."

THIS DO-IT-YOURSELF trend is really booming.

Before World War II, only 28 per cent of home owners in the nation attempted to hang their own wallpaper. Today the percentage has zoomed up to between 65 and 80 per cent, according to Business Week.

Prior to the war the number of people who painted their own homes was quite small. Today, out of every 100 gallons of paint sold, 84 are bought and used by the individual home owner and his family.

LAWNS ARE GETTING more personal trims. Power mower sales have multiplied by 20 per cent since pre-World War II days.

Industry is doing everything it can to aid this do-it-yourself activity.

FOR INSTANCE, it's lots easier now to lay new floor coverings because the material is available in easy-to-handle squares — linoleum, asphalt, rubber, plastic, hardwood, carpeting.

Plywood, hardboard and other wood panels, which formerly were sold only in 4 by 8-foot sizes, now comes in handy panels at your local lumber dealers.

As a result, retail lumber sales have quadrupled since the period before the war.

WE CAN BUY about 100 different types of home power tools with something like 400 accessories—blades, drills and grinders.

Before the war there weren't more than 25 such tools on the market.

WE CAN GET wallpaper pre-trimmed, pre-pasted and cut into strips just a little longer than the height of the average wall.

Free Press -- and The SUN's Role

This is National Newspaper Week, the one period in the year when newspapers, big and little, take time out to discuss with their readers the reasons for their existence.

As you know, The SUN is not a large daily. It is one of approximately 10,000 weekly newspapers scattered throughout the length and breadth of the United States. Yet our function is as significant and important as that of our big brothers in the daily field.

The news we carry from week to week rarely screams of tragedy or disaster or scandal. Rather, it emphasizes the problems, activities and progress of our community, the organizational and social efforts of our citizens, the healthy athletic competition among our schools, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and other youth groups are prominently reported.

Yet when tragedy strikes, we do our job as newspaper people -- to report the news.

Our responsibility is to help chronicle your triumphs, your joys and your sorrows; to report what your local, county, state and national officials do that affect this community and area, so that you can decide what is right and what is wrong.

Sometimes we express our opinion of what the officials do, so that you can see what we think and so that our opinion can be used in your deliberations when you form your own opinion.

Sometimes you may agree with us, sometimes not. The important thing is that you think about the issue and arrive at an opinion.

When you do that we serve our purpose.

Much has been written and said about "Freedom of the Press" and what it guarantees.

But what is "Freedom of the Press?" Is it just a catchword? Is it merely a license for newspapers to print what they wish?

No. Not at all. It is neither of these things.

John B. Long, general manager of the California Newspaper Publishers Association has defined it this way:

"Freedom of the Press is the right of the people to know and their right to disagree in print."

That's a pretty fundamental statement. Newspapers are a vehicle of public service. Their very existence depends on their being a vehicle of public service -- the place where, as Mr. Long puts it, you "have the right to know and the right to disagree in print."

As long as newspapers fulfill this obligation they will continue to flourish and to exist. They will continue to be the market place of all the people. The place you look to see what one merchant or another is offering you. The place you can compare and select when, where and how you want to, without the limitations placed on you by radio or television.

In California, a sub-slogan has been selected for National Newspaper Week. It's short and to the point. It says merely: "Freedom's Guarantee -- YOUR NEWS-PAPER."

Informed Press Means Informed People

Opinion Divided On Commuting By Sacto-Northern

Opinion on the use of the Sacramento Northern Railway as a logical transportation system into Oakland and San Francisco seems to be divided between Orinda, Lafayette and Walnut Creek residents.

The SUN telephoned several residents this week -- the names were picked at random from the telephone directory -- to find their opinion on the question: "If Sacramento Northern Railroad offered good passenger service to Oakland and San Francisco, would you use the service?"

And here are the answers:

DICK KUHLMAN, a salesman at 157 Elaine Drive in Pleasant Hill, said he would not use a commuter train as he drives a company car and makes calls on his way to work occasionally. He added that his wife would and that many of his relatives in the Bay Area would be "tickled to death" with such a service.

MRS. ROBERT E. LEE, 3662 West Road, Lafayette, said "We drive in and wouldn't use it. Both my husband and I have our cars to drive and would continue to do so."

D. A. LYONS of 1871 Magnolia who now drives to Oakland with a car pool replied immediately, "Yes, definitely." He added that his comments on the present transportation situation would be unprintable.

"I CERTAINLY would," said James J. Kral, 44 Irving Lane, Orinda. "Parking facilities in Oakland and San Francisco are not too hot and I would rather take the train."

C. D. KING of 1230 Rosemary Lane in Pleasant Hill, thought for a minute or two before he answered and finally said, "Yes I would use it." He explained that he drives to Pittsburg now, and that it is inconvenient.

DR. HUGH J. LENAHEAN, 3288 Walnut Lane, Lafayette, said "I imagine I would use it at times. It would be a handy thing to have and I'm sure I would use it some of the time."

Martinez Merry-Go-Round Greenhalgh Named Committee Head

Howard Greenhalgh, Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company Walnut Creek manager, was named to head a committee on television reception last week by the Contra Costa Development Association.

Appointment of committee heads was announced by Edward M. Larmer, president and Walnut Creek Hardware merchant.

Also named committee chairmen were W. B. Kelley, aviation advisory; Milton E. Gross, exhibits; R. P. Copeland, factory location; Joseph L. Judson, highway and transportation; H. S. Dodge, industrial; L. T. Schreiber, membership; Harry Curry, natural resources; Ames N. Groom, publicity; George Bowserox, recreation, and C. P. Tanner, special events.

County Taxpayers Nominate Directors

Nominations for candidates for three-year terms as directors of the Contra Costa County Taxpayers Association have been made by the unit's nominating committee.

Included are Gus Malmquist, Concord area agriculturist, and William S. Palmer of 2731 Oak Road in Walnut Creek.

A total of nine directors are to be elected by mail ballots to be returned by October 19.

County Teachers To Host Science Meet

Contra Costa County teachers will host some 500 teachers from throughout Northern California at the fall meeting of the Northern Section, Elementary School Science Association, October 10.

The all-day program will take place in Richmond High School, according to an announcement through B. O. Wilson, county superintendent of schools.

LABOR SURVEY

The feasibility of a labor survey in the county was discussed last week by the Board of Directors of the Contra Costa Development Association.

Harlie R. Norris, assistant chief of the State Division of Development and Stabilization of Employment, spoke on the topic.

WELFARE PRAISED

The County Welfare Department's plan to serve children is one of which the county can "justly be proud."

This was a statement from the State Department of Social Welfare letter read to the County Board of Supervisors last week.

Under The Sun

By THE EDITOR

Loudest and longest chuckle I have had in a long time was over last week's news report of the meeting that Sheriff Jim Long and District Attorney Francis Collins had with the supervisors. The county big wheels were discussing the proposed ordinance to prohibit minors from playing pinball machines.

Judge Donald F. Creedon recently complained directly to the supervisors about minors and pinball payoffs.

The Sheriff and D.A. were mighty upset about the judge's action. The boys felt that Creedon should have reported directly to them and not to the supervisors. Jim and Francis declared that, after all, they are the law enforcement officers of the county!

Every man is a sheriff

Then, with great dignity our sheriff went on to say that the responsibility for informing his office of any illegal activities belongs to all adult citizens in the county.

The punch ending to this item is obvious to you readers of The SUN. For years you've read about letters written by local citizens to Long and Collins reporting flagrant violations of our gambling laws.

And The SUN has notified both gentlemen via phone and print about violations just a few dozen times in the past years.

I think the most amazing reaction followed our recent disclosure of illegal multiple play pinball games and payoffs. As you recall, the sheriff and D.A. finally took action.

Yes, they ordered the removal of the gambling devices -- but only in the towns where The SUN is circulated. They are still going full blast elsewhere.

Bob Kahn blasts the poison pen

In the Letters to the Editor on this page you'll find Bob Kahn's answer to my "Poison Pen" attack on the Air Force's personnel reduction policy. Two weeks ago I wrote that the Air Force was toying with the national safety by discharging experienced flight personnel instead of their desk pilots.

We printed the most important part of Bob's four-page single-spaced letter.

But printed herewith is Bob's epilogue:

"I want to apologize for the length of this letter. But I do want to summarize my points as follows.

"a. You weren't kidding when you kidded about a 'poison pen.'
"b. You should have stuck to your principle of leaving national affairs alone.

"c. You violated one of the basic principles of journalism by going off half-cooked without complete information."

What do I say to that?

1. The information is based on reports from Time magazine.

2. I still contend that the Air Force and the other services can reduce their personnel by as much as 20 per cent without impairing their efficiency. Again I say, ask anyone in the service during wartime and most will agree with this statement.

3. Just to needle Lieut. Col. (Reserve) Kahn a bit, I think he's bucking for Colonel.

Incidentally, I missed the nicest part of the letter. This was tucked at the top of the front page:

"Dear Herman, I was mad as I wrote this. Patty says it is much too vituperative. She wanted me to rewrite it but I don't have the time. Therefore would suggest that you don't publish this -- but that you do set the benefit of the information contained in it. P. S. We are still friends."

Yes, Bob and I are still good friends. Only a few nights ago we settled many local and national problems over the telephone.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

You read the wrong "Time" when you read "Time" magazine instead of the "Air Force Times" makes formation on how the reduction in Air Force officer strength was to be made. "Air Force Times" makes a profession of reporting the happenings in the Air Force to the personnel of the Air Force.

Without getting in to technicalities, these are the steps taken:
a. Allowed reserve officers on active duty who desire to get out to apply for immediate release despite any prior commitments they may have signed.

b. Based retirement regulations for officers, reserve and regular, with over 30 years.
c. Allowed regulars to resign their commissions (this had been prohibited since shortly after the outbreak of Korea).

d. Tried to avoid calling to duty 9500 of last June's AF ROTC graduates.
e. Screened the Air Force for substandard officers and effected immediate involuntary release from active duty regardless of the career field.

AFTER TAKING ALL these steps, the Air Force still had not effected the necessary reduction of approximately 25,000 officers. It was then necessary to release officers whose duty performance was considered "satisfactory."

In following out this program quotas were set placing the bulk of these reductions in the fields you suggest -- public information, personnel and inspection. The balance of the officers, though a smaller group, were to come from the "support services" or supply and maintenance. Relatively few INVOLUNTARY releases of flying officers with a "satisfactory" proficiency level was made.

I have recently heard from my old base overseas and know the officers that were released there on an involuntary basis -- and I think the selections were excellent.

The Air Force does play politics -- just the same as every governmental organization, whether it is the State Department in Washington, the Division of Natural Resources in California or the Park Department in Oakland.

BUT THE AIR FORCE, from Billy Mitchell through Vandenberg and LeMay, has fought for and sacrificed personal careers to try to bring protection to the United States through Air Power.

The AF would like to have at least 50 per cent of its officer personnel rated officers. Right now it has about 30 per cent. All of its policies have been aimed towards protecting two groups of officers: a) rated personnel; b) scarce technicians such as research engineers, physicists, electronic engineers, etc.

The latter group HAS NOT been allowed to leave duty prior to the completion of service obligations. You said that every AF installation could be reduced by 20 per cent -- WITHOUT IMPAIRING THE EFFICIENCY of the outfit. Efficiency when? During peace? During the immediate days after the outbreak of war?

As to the $5 billion budget cut for the AF this year, I am less concerned with that than I am with the restriction on the actual amount of money that can be spent this year (both from prior budgets and the current budget) and the amount of money that will be authorized to be SPENT (not budgeted) next year. The strength of the Air Force depends not so much on the funds budgeted but on the funds spent.

ROBERT KAHN, Lafayette.
